

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY – Wolastoqey Nation in New Brunswick

Archaeological Advisor

This position is being created to build capacity within WNNB. The Archaeological Advisor hired will be responsible for:

- Reviewing and providing input into the development of the Phase 2 curriculum for Certified Archaeological Field Technicians, (Duties will include participating in curriculum meetings where requested, making suggestions of revisions/additions and providing progress updates to RDCCs)
- Advising WNNB on materials on Archaeology to educate the Wolastoqey Communities at large (on and off reserve)
- Assisting in the development of a Province/WNNB Archaeological MOU
- Undertaking reviews of Environmental Impact Assessments for potential impacts to Archaeological Resources
- Undertaking reviews of Archaeological Permit Applications, including commenting on how the Wolastoqey should be involved and reviewing and commenting on draft Permit Reports
- Facilitating further discussion around Mechanical Testing Procedures – reviewing comparative data on artifact breakage, site identification, implications of implementation vs. non-implementation and report results to the WNNB for discussion
- Reviewing relevant provincial legislation for consideration of Archaeological Resources – preparing a summary of where Archaeological Resources are considered and recommendations for other legislation where Archaeological concerns should be considered. (Report to be provided for discussion to WNNB and GNB)
- Completing any other relevant task associated with Archaeological files at WNNB

Qualifications:

- Graduate Degree in Archaeology, a related field or equivalent experience
- Experience in Northeastern North America
- Knowledge of New Brunswick Guidelines, Review Process and Relevant Legislation
- Experience in Historic and Pre-Contact Artifact Analysis (especially lithic analysis), Research and Reporting
- Experience writing professional technical and analytical documents
- Class V License
- Strong Communicator
- Professionalism

The successful applicant must possess a valid driver's license; be self-motivated, have the ability to work independently under their assigned management structure and must also be able to work well with others. Please note: this work will require strenuous physical activity in remote locations, some evening and weekend work may be required.

Pay: Depending on Level of Experience of the Successful Applicant

Confidential applications should be submitted via email, using the email subject line "Archaeological Advisor", to human.resources@wolastoqey.ca or by mail to Box 14, 150 Cliffe St., Kchikhusis Commercial Centre, St. Mary's First Nation, NB E3A 01A by February 28, 2019 at midnight.

Thank you for applying - only those selected for an interview will be contacted directly.